

DISABILITY PERSONS & CARERS DISCOUNT FESTIVAL DAY PASS REGISTRATION 14-16 November 2014

The 3 day Canberra Country Blues & Roots Festival is held during the 3rd weekend of November at the Queanbeyan Showground. With flat level access, disabled toilets, first aid facilities, discounted tickets and caring staff this is an ideal opportunity for a day or weekend outing for people with disabilities and carers alike!

There is plenty for everyone, especially for people with disabilities:

- Familiar country music
- Meet and Greet with performers
- Dancing view or join in
- Great food variety
- Disabled drop-off at front gate entry
- Disabled rest room facilities
- First Aiders across the Festival site

Being 5 weeks out from Christmas in warm weather the Festival is a great opportunity to have an outing where entertainment abounds that all people will enjoy. And we treat disabled persons as royalty with meet and greets with the stars – so bring your camera!

And even better, carers that accompany people with disabilities are admitted FREE with a Weekend Pass – so carers can revisit in their own to enjoy the Festival night or day!

Key attractions include: all genres of good time Country Music (from bush ballads to country rock) some light blues, Ute & Truck Muster, Music Row Exhibition, New Album launches, Singalongs, Horse Riders, Trade Markets and more! Meet the Australian, Americans, Canadians, Europeans and Kiwi Country Music performers, including Lindsay Butler - take photos with them and get signed album copies – it's like an early Christmas celebration!

Family Friendly – Fun For Children And Making Adults Feel Young

The Festival opens midday on Friday 14 Nov with this afternoon an excellent time for people with disabilities to visit as the trade workers, families and youth are mostly otherwise occupied so absent allowing the full attention of performers. Other days include Saturday 8am to midnight and Sunday 8am to 6pm, so there are plenty of opportunities to enjoy this event. And children under 13 years are admitted free – so a good opportunity to entertain smaller children! You can be assured the Festival will live on in everyone's memory of a great time @ the Canberra Country Blues & Roots Festival 14-16 November 2014.
